RE: Academic Senate, Irvine Division Special Election
           September 11, 2019 – September 25, 2019

As was reported in the August 23, 2019 email to members of the Irvine Division, the Committee on Committees has presented its Slate of Nominees for a Special Election to fill a vacancy from the Donald Bren School of Information and Computer Sciences on Senate Council on Academic Personnel (CAP) for the 2019-22 term.

The Senate special election is being conducted electronically. To vote, you will need to access the ballot using your UCInetID and password at: https://dms.senate.uci.edu/~ballots

Voting Instructions:
1.   The ballot can be accessed until 5:00 p.m. Pacific Standard Time on September 25, 2019.
2.   Log in using the above link, and then enter your UCInetID* and password.
3.   Vote for one candidate in each category and click submit.

The ballot includes links to the slate of nominees, which was originally distributed to you on August 23, 2019. The slate contains the candidates' record of Senate service, which can be found at https://senate.uci.edu/senate-special-election-2019/.

If you have any questions or need special accommodations, please contact Christine Aguilar in the Academic Senate Office at (949) 824-7458 or cmaguil1@uci.edu.

The election results provided to the Academic Senate Office will not contain information traceable to an individual or UCInetID. Irvine Bylaw 185(D) reads: "Candidates receiving the highest plurality of votes in accordance with the number of positions to be filled are elected." Election results will be announced via email by September 27, 2019. Service for elected individuals begins September 30, 2019.

All Senate members are bound by the Faculty Code of Conduct and the ethical principles embodied therein. There is an expectation that campaigning and public comments during the electoral process will be done in a collegial way with openness and fair opportunity for response.

Thank you for your participation in the Academic Senate's special election.

Jeffrey Barrett, Chair Elect-Secretary
Academic Senate, Irvine Division
